

BIOGRAPHIES WANTED

By CYRUS DERICKSON

Copyright, 1933, by T. C. McClure.

The Bebee Settlement was so called because so many farmers of that name, and all related, had settled there. It was at peace with all mankind and the farmers hoeing their corn when something like a cloudburst happened. A stranger arrived at the house of Silas Bebee and sat down to a boiled dinner with him and afterward held a long and interesting conversation. Mr. Graves, as the stranger gave his name, was one of the partners in a big publishing house which made a specialty of publishing the biographies of the old and eminent families of America. The name of Bebee, as he had discovered by long and patient research, dated back to the year 900 and had been borne by princes, dukes, counts, barons, poets and soldiers. What Mr. Graves wanted was to bring the Bebee biography down to Silas and let the world know that the family was still on tap and as eminent as in days of yore. He wanted to fill at least ten pages of the gilt backed book he was getting out with the sayings and doings of Silas, while the eleventh page should be taken up with a full length portrait of the sturdy old farmer. The biography and the portrait would be free, but in order to cover the cost of the glue and the stitching Silas would have to come down with $25 in cash.

"I don't think I'll trade," was the reply when the caller had stated his case. Mr. Graves seemed to have prepared himself for just such an answer, and he turned away with:

"Very well, Mr. Bebee. As you are the most prominent of the family, I naturally came to you first, but as you don't care for the honors I shall go to Reuben. I think he will jump at the opportunity, being as he wants to be elected county supervisor next year. Good day, Mr. Bebee."

There wasn't a feeling of brotherly love between Silas and Reuben. Both wanted to "run things," and naturally that brought about a clash. Silas had some thoughts of running for county supervisor himself, and it was news to him and news he did not like that Reuben was planning to mix in. He did some rapid thinking. Mr. Graves had not climbed into his buggy when he was called back and a bargain concluded.

"BY GUM, I ALWAYS KNEW SILAS BEBEE WAS A SNAKE."

The rest of the afternoon and all the evening were spent in listening to Silas Bebee's history, covering a period of some fifty-six years. Mr. Graves made copious notes and nodded his head from time to time, and all went well with the story. Bedtime had come, and Silas had given in sufficient matter for his ten pages when his wife, who had all along been doing a heap of thinking, rose and inquired:

"Silas, am I to be left out of this thing as if I didn't amount to snucks? If I haven't helped you to be the biggest toad in the puddle, who has?"

"They never say anything in books about big women, do they?" he asked of Mr. Graves.

"Well, very seldom," was the reply. "I believe they have mentioned Cleopatra and one or two others, but those were exceptional cases. Still, as your wife says—"

The result was that Mrs. Silas Bebee was given three pages and a portrait in the book, all for the sum of $8 cash in advance, and the clock had struck midnight before she got through telling how often she had had rheumatism, hysterics and bronchitis and how many yards of rag carpet and barrels of soft soap she had made during her married life. There was a son in the family named Joe. He had nothing to say that evening, but he got up next morning to claim his rights. As the son of Bebee and the biggest Bebee of them all, he wanted to be known of men, and it was finally decided that he should have two pages and a portrait for $5. It was dog cheap, and Mr. Graves would lose money on it, but he had started out to see the Bebee family through and must do it even if he went broke. It took him three days to get through with the family, during which he had free board and lodgings as a matter of course, and then he headed for the house of Reuben. It was understood that he must call there to ask Reuben his exact age, but he must not go beyond that. Reuben was in the cornfield with his hoe, and he feared against the fence and heard what the publisher had to say and then replied:

"By gum, but I always knowed Silas Bebee was a snake, and now it's proved. He wants folks to think he's the big Bebee, does he? Wants the world to believe that all the other Bebees stand around and look at him with their mouths open? Well, I'll bust up his little circus for him!"

Mr. Graves had struck a good thing, and he was the man to push it. Reuben wanted more pages than Silas had. His sons wanted to spread out in a liberal manner, and Mr. Graves fixed matters to suit them and himself. He had free board and lodgings for four days and departed with cash enough to buy a fur lined overcoat for the next winter. In honor of him, as he informed Reuben, he must call on Salathiel Bebee, but only to make sure whether his grandfather was bitten by a mad dog in the state of Ohio or Michigan. He called. Salathiel was uprooting the pigweeds which had crept into his garden, and when Mr. Graves had explained the biography business to him he straightened up and said:

"You kin pass right on. I ain't buyin' no gold bricks today."

But Mr. Graves didn't pass. He showed the contracts entered into with Silas and Reuben, and he added the remark that it was too bad there were only two eminent families of Bebees. Then Salathiel struck the trunk of a cherry tree with his fist and exclaimed:

"By John Rodgers, but the idea of them Bebees passin' themselves off the smartest and best in America! They do know how to farm, and I won't go for to deny it, but as for bein' big guns they ain't knee high. I'm no hand to brag, but if I don't lay over Silas and Reube every day in the week then you kin kick me clear across the barnyard."

The rest was easy, of course. There were Salathiel, his wife and two sons and two daughters, and all had to go into that book regardless of space or cost. Mr. Graves was not an impetuous man, and he took his time writing out his notes and managed to get five days' free board and lodgings. Then he departed to "work" Moses, Abraham, Jacob, Peter, Paul and several other Bebees, securing victims in each and every family and in one instance taking in everything from the grand-mother down to the infant in the cradle. He put in a full month at his work, and he had the best beds and the best meals. After his coming the Bebees no longer neighbored, and they passed each other with their heads held high and their noses turned up. In one or two cases the young men came to blows, and lawsuits were started over old matters. Things were edged along toward a grievous state of affairs when Mr. Graves and his notes and his money departed, and three days later a detective arrived in search of him and exposed him as a swindler. The Bebees didn't want to and couldn't believe it at first, but the evidence submitted was too strong for them to stand against, and after a due amount of weeping and wailing and swearing a meeting of all the families was held, and it was unanimously

"Resolved, that while the Bebees date back to the year 900 this year saw the whole darn caboodle making fools of themselves without reason or excuse, and we won't do it again."

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced in the race of evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit, than the testimony of Clarksburg, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

G. A. Carder, shoemaker, of 106 East Elk street, says: "For fifteen years every now and then I had attacks of back-ache, some of them so severe that I was unable to get around. The dull, bearing-down pain just across the kidneys rendered stooping or lifting almost impossible, and morning after morning when I awakened it required extra effort to turn over in bed. Stiffness and soreness across the small of my back was very pronounced when the attacks were in the acute stage and so that there could be any doubt left as to the cause of the complicated trouble with the kidney secretions existed. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice and I went to Wells & Haymaker's drug store for a box. Relief followed after a dose or two, and a continuation of the treatment stopped the last attack. I have not the slightest hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

SPECIAL TRAINS.

B. & O. Will Run Them From Uniontown and Clarksburg, March 14.

The B. & O. has announced unofficially that it will run special trains from Clarksburg and Uniontown to Morgantown on March 14 for the big concert in which Richard Strauss and Victor Herbert are to take part. The trains will leave Morgantown midnight on their way back home. This was done without the demand of any guarantee and it shows that the road is very much interested in the event which is to be one of the biggest that has ever taken place in the state. The exact schedule of the train has not been announced.

Always Had It.

"Has your husband a birthmark or anything of that kind by which he may be identified?" asked the detective.

The deserted wife reflected a moment. "Yes, sir," she said. "He has a sort of hand-dog look on his face, and it was born with him, I guess."—Chicago Tribune.

Ready For It.

Professor Longhair—it has been demonstrated beyond question that this continent is sinking. Miss De Style—Oh, well, we've got a yacht.—New York Weekly.

The Name Witch Hazel.

The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. A certain cure for Cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous while they are all worthless. In buying Witch Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago, is on the box and a cure is certain. Sold by Wells & Haymaker.

An Unselfish Husband.

Conjurer (pointing to his cabinet)—Ladies and gentlemen, I now call your attention to the great illusion of the evening. I will ask any lady in the audience to step on the stage and enter the cabinet. I will then close the door. When I open it again, the lady will have disappeared, leaving no trace. Husband (to his wife)—Matilda, my love, do oblige the gentleman and walk up.—London Telegraph.

Happy, Healthy Children.

Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripe or sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefer them to all other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold by Wells & Haymaker.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Cures Colds, Croup, Pneumonia, For sale by Stone & Mercer, C. D. Sturm & Co., and R. J. Criss.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia, and expels malaria germs. Only 50c., and satisfaction guaranteed by Frank C. Bland, druggist.

The Humorous Snubians.

"Next to the Americans," said Max Nordau, "I think that the Snubians are the most humorous people in the world. A Snubian if he has nothing funny to say keeps silent. Stupidity is unknown among this race."

"One night in Snubia in my early youth I called on a Snubian maiden. She was very pretty. Perhaps I stayed longer than I should. Suddenly, at any rate, the young girl's mother called in a loud voice from upstairs:—

"Gretchen! Gretchen!"

"Yes, mother," Gretchen answered.

"Gretchen, it is very cold here. Will you ask that young man to shut the front door from the outside?"

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. McGruder E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough strengthening my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by Wells & Haymaker."

His Theory.

"It is better to rule by love than fear," said the gentle philosopher.

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum; "it is people's love of money that has made life easy for me."—Washington Star.

Too much effort to increase our happiness transforms it into misery.—Rousseau.

Well Again.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by G. C. Stone, druggist.

Crops, Gizzards and Stomachs.

Insects are oddly constructed atoms of animated nature, as a rule, and it depends altogether on the species as to internal makeup. In bees the crop is called the honey bag. Insects with mandibles usually have a modified form of the "gizzard" so typical in the common barnyard fowl. In some cases this miniature "gizzard" is a perfect wonder shop, its inner surface being provided with "pads" covered with "horns" and "bristles" in great profusion. The grasshopper's "gizzard" is lined with innumerable rows of teeth, very minute, of course, but well developed, true teeth, nevertheless. The same may be said of crickets and other insects of that ilk.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by Wells & Haymaker.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Frank G. Bland, druggist.

Beecher and Emerson.

One day Mr. Beecher was dining beside Emerson and said, "Mr. Emerson, when you are eating this fine beef, can you tell by the flavor what kind of grass the ox ate?"

"Why, no, of course not?"

"I am right glad to hear it," replied Beecher. "For I have been feeding my congregation on Emerson for many a year, and I have been afraid they would find it out."—Boston Christian Register.

Age of Mother Earth.

An eminent scientist's estimate of the age of the world is "not so great as 40,000,000 years, possibly as little as 20,000,000 years, probably 30,000,000 years." As not even the greatest scientists have been able to find out within 10,000,000 or 15,000,000 years how old Mother Earth is, it must be confessed that she keeps the secret of her age quite as well as do her charming daughters. The scientists may at last come to the conclusion that, like the others, she is "only as old as she looks."—Baltimore Sun.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, O. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by Frank C. Bland, druggist. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

A Thousand Dollars Thrown Away.

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainville, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Sold by Stone & Mercer, C. D. Frightful Running Sores and actual rotting away of the bones and flesh result frequently from lack of attention to the proper cleansing of the blood when it is a little out of order.

It has been proved to us beyond the shadow of a doubt that Foerg's Remedy will cure Specific Blood Poison—the kind of all blood diseases. Therefore, why fool with anything but this wonderful remedy if you have any of the mild forms of poisoned blood, such as Scrofula, Eruptions, Pimples, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Salt Rheum or Eczema?

..FOERC'S REMEDY.. IS A SAFE REMEDY,

Containing no mercury or other injurious substances, it is an entirely vegetable product and is composed of some of the best and rarest drugs known to science. Because of their expensive and rare nature, they are very seldom used by the practicing fraternity.

The formula from which Foerg's Remedy is made is the result of many years of study and practice of an eminent physician, who found it wonderfully successful. If you are a victim of specific blood poisoning, scrofula, or any other form of impure blood, Foerg's Remedy is a fair chance to relieve your present suffering, and by cleansing your system of the foul disease which now occupies it, grant you a new lease of manhood or womanhood.

Remember, also, if you have been a user of mercury or other mineral poisons, your case is not one whit less desperate. More than ever do you need the wholesome, active, purgative power of Foerg's Remedy to rid your veins of this most baneful drug.

You are interested!

You say, "What! Can it be true that these actually extend a medicine that will rid my life of this awful blight—that will make me clean and whole, even as are the men and women I have so often envied?"

It is true.

And in order that you may see that our words are not idle—In order that you may catch our enthusiasm and have knowledge of our own confidence in our
